

All quotations submitted by Renishaw plc ("Seller") to its customer ("Buyer") are submitted and all orders on Seller are accepted and sales from Seller to Buyer are made on and subject to the following Conditions in which "the Goods" means the goods the subject of such quotation, order or sale.

"Intellectual Property Rights" means any patents, trademarks, registered designs and all applications for registration of them, copyrights or design rights or any right which is similar or analogous to any of these.

"Software" means the computer programs supplied by Seller to Buyer whether as part of or in connection with the Goods or separately that are the subject of a licence granted by Seller to Buyer but excludes computer programs licensed to Buyer by a third party. The licence from the Seller to the Buyer may be contained in a document accompanying the Software (whether or not signed by the parties) or incorporated in the computer programs. If Buyer installs the computer programs, it shall be deemed to have accepted the terms of the licence.

1. Making of Contract

Seller's quotations are not offers capable of acceptance and Buyer's orders are not binding on the Seller. No contract exists until Seller issues an acceptance of order on the terms of these Conditions. These Conditions supersede any conditions in the order. No other terms and conditions apply unless specifically agreed by Seller in writing. Any representations about the Goods have no effect unless specifically agreed by Seller in writing. No addition to or modification or waiver of these Conditions shall be effective unless made in writing signed by an authorised official of each party. The licence for the Software shall prevail over these Conditions if there is any inconsistency.

2. Prices

- Unless otherwise agreed between the parties all prices quoted are prices ex works. If not separately quoted any applicable value added tax shall be payable in addition. Buyer shall pay for all taxes, duties, charges and levies for the export/import of the Goods. All prices and discount rates quoted or notified by Seller are (unless otherwise agreed in writing) subject to variation and shall be replaced by those prevailing at the date of delivery.
- If Seller agrees to arrange for carriage of the Goods then subject to Condition 2(c) below such carriage may be the subject of an additional charge and will be made at Buyer's own risk. Notwithstanding Seller's agreement to arrange such carriage, property and risk in the Goods shall pass to Buyer according to Condition 7 below.
- If under Condition 3 Incoterms 2000 apply to the Goods or any part of them the price for such items of the Goods shall include all matters for which Seller is liable under Incoterms 2000.

3. Incoterms 2000

- If the Goods or any part or consignment of them are either:
 - Sold on "ex works" terms or
 - Sold on other terms defined by Incoterms 2000,then Incoterms 2000 shall be incorporated into this contract for the Goods or the parts of them sold on such terms except to the extent that Incoterms 2000 are inconsistent with these conditions or any effective term of this contract.
- Any consignment of the Goods to which Incoterms 2000 apply under Condition 3(a) above is referred to as an "Incoterm consignment" and any other consignment is referred to as a "non-Incoterm consignment".

4. Import and Export Licences, etc

- Buyer shall in respect of each non-Incoterm consignment:
 - obtain at his own risk and expense any import licence or permit which may be required for the importation and acceptance of such consignment into the country of destination; and
 - bear and pay all costs and charges which may be incurred in obtaining any certificate of origin or consular invoice and any documents other than those previously referred to in this Condition 4 which Buyer may require for the importation and acceptance of such consignment into the country of destination and where necessary for its passage through any other country;
 - pay for all taxes, duties, charges and levies for the export/import of the Goods.
- The Seller's acceptance of order is conditional on the receipt of any export licence or permit or other documentation that may be required by relevant authorities.
- If the Buyer intends to export or re-export any item after receipt from Seller (including deemed exports), the Buyer shall request and obtain all necessary licences for the use and/or export of said items.
- In complying with applicable export controls Seller and its suppliers may need to seek an export licence and/or make a rating enquiry to the applicable government(s), which may delay a shipment. Buyer agrees that in such cases Seller is not liable for such delay.

5. Payment

- Payment for the Goods shall be made in the manner and at the time or times agreed by the parties. If not otherwise specifically agreed, Seller shall be entitled to invoice upon making the Goods available for collection or upon delivery to a carrier (whichever is applicable) and payment shall be due within 30 days of the date of the invoice.
- Buyer shall bear and pay the cost of establishing any letters of credit or arranging any other method of payment agreed for settlement of moneys due to Seller under the contract. Interest on all overdue sums shall be charged at 2 per cent per month until payment is received after as well as before any judgment for such sums.

6. Delivery

- All delivery dates are estimates only and the time of delivery is not of the essence of the contract. In no circumstances shall Seller be liable to compensate Buyer in damages or otherwise for non-delivery or late delivery of the Goods or any of them for whatever reason or for any loss consequential or otherwise arising. Buyer shall not be entitled to cancel orders in any circumstances.
- If Seller cannot deliver the Goods or any part thereof because of war, riot, explosion, fire, flood, strike, lockout or other industrial dispute, shortage of materials or labour, government restriction or legislation, or any cause beyond Seller's reasonable control (whether similar to any of the foregoing or not) the time of delivery shall be extended by a period equal to that during which the cause preventing or hindering delivery exists. If this Condition applies Seller shall deliver and Buyer shall take and pay for such part of the Goods as Seller shall be able to deliver in accordance with the contract.
- Seller shall be entitled to deliver the Goods in one or more consignments unless otherwise expressly agreed. In all cases where delivery is made in one or more consignments or instalments, each consignment or instalment shall be deemed to be made under a separate contract and may be invoiced separately and cancellation of any consignments or instalment shall not void or affect contracts as to other consignments or instalments.
- Delivery of an Incoterm consignment ex works shall take place when the Goods are made available for collection by the Buyer. Delivery of a non-Incoterm consignment other than ex works shall take place when the Goods are delivered to a carrier. Delivery of any non-Incoterm consignment shall take place when the Goods are delivered to a carrier or collected by the Buyer (whichever is applicable). Where Seller has not undertaken to arrange for carriage of the Goods from its works, Buyer shall collect the Goods from Seller's works within seven days of receipt of notice from Seller that the Goods are ready for collection and if Buyer fails to take delivery of the Goods within that time Seller may, as agent for the Buyer, but without surrendering its lien or right of resale as an unpaid seller, arrange for the Goods to be stored at its works or elsewhere and Buyer will pay and indemnify Seller against all storage charges, insurance and other costs, expenses, interest and charges arising from Buyer's failure.
- Where Seller has arranged for carriage of the Goods, Buyer shall be deemed to have received such Goods unless it has notified Seller in writing of non-delivery by the due date for payment of the relevant invoice.

7. Property, Risk and Return of unused Goods

- The provisions of this Condition shall apply in relation to the passing of property or the passing of risk to any Goods comprised in an Incoterm consignment notwithstanding the provisions of Incoterms 2000 relating to the same.
- Risk of loss of or damage to the Goods shall pass to Buyer at the time of delivery or deemed delivery.
- The property in the Goods shall not pass to Buyer until all sums due or owing to Seller by Buyer on any account have been paid and until payment the following provisions of this Condition 7 shall apply.
- The whole of the price shall not be treated as paid until any cheque, bill of exchange or other instrument of payment given by Buyer has been met on presentation or otherwise honoured in accordance with its terms. Seller may sue for the whole of the price at any time after it has become payable.
- If the Buyer does not pay any sum owing to Seller on time then Seller shall be entitled to the immediate return of all Goods sold by Seller to Buyer (or the documents of title thereto) in which the property has not passed to Buyer, and Buyer hereby irrevocably authorises Seller to recover the Goods or documents and to enter any premises of Buyer for that purpose. Demand for or recovery of the Goods or documents by Seller shall not itself discharge Buyer's liability to pay the whole of the price and take delivery of the Goods or Seller's right to sue for the whole of the price and for the costs of recovering the Goods.
- Goods may be returned if they were incorrectly ordered or are no longer needed subject to a charge of £25 (or local currency equivalent, as decided by the Seller) or 10% of the value of the Goods, whichever is the greater, and subject to the following conditions:
 - the Goods and packaging are in good, resalable condition;
 - the Goods are returned within three months from the date of the invoice for the Goods; and
 - the Goods have not been used.

8. Buyer's Default

- Seller may at its option cancel or withhold all further deliveries under the contract if Buyer:
- does not pay any sum due under this or any other contract between Seller and Buyer on time; or
 - being a natural person, shall die or become bankrupt; or
 - being a company, shall enter into liquidation or if an administrator or receiver or administrative receiver is appointed over all or part of its undertaking, property or assets; or
 - enters or offers to enter into any arrangement or composition with his or its creditors; or
 - suffers anything similar or analogous to any of the foregoing under the laws of any jurisdiction in which Buyer is incorporated, resident or carries on business.
- Buyer shall immediately give notification to Seller if (ii) - (v) shall apply, and in the case of death, the Buyer's representatives shall give such notification.

9. Inspection of Goods

- If Seller and Buyer have agreed that the Goods are sold subject to prior inspection by Buyer, such inspection shall take place at Seller's works and once Buyer or his representative has inspected and approved the Goods, the Goods shall be conclusively presumed to be in accordance with the contract and satisfactory in materials and workmanship, and Condition 10 below shall not apply in respect of those Goods.
- If Condition 9(a) does not apply to a consignment of the Goods, Buyer must notify Seller of any claims that the Goods are not in accordance with the contract within seven days of delivery (as defined in Condition 6(d)). If Seller does not receive any claims within such seven-day period, the Goods shall be conclusively presumed to be in accordance with the contract. If Buyer establishes to Seller's satisfaction that the Goods are not in accordance with the contract Buyer's sole remedy shall be limited, at Seller's option, to the replacement of the Goods or refund of the purchase price against return of the Goods.

10. Defects in Goods

- Subject to Conditions 9(a), 10(b), 10(c) and 10(d) Seller will make good, by repair or at its option by the supply of a replacement, defects which under proper use appear in the Goods within a period of twelve months (or, if Buyer is a manufacturer of equipment for resale with the Goods as an integral part thereof, or purchases the Goods for resale new and unused, a period of fifteen months) after the Goods have been delivered and arise solely from faulty materials or workmanship. The repair or replacement shall not benefit from any warranty and therefore the original warranty of 12 months or 15 months (whichever is applicable) shall remain unaltered from the date of the delivery of the Goods.
- Seller is not liable for the quality, performance or fitness for purpose of any hardware manufactured or software licensed by a third party.
- If Buyer notifies Seller that the Software does not materially perform to specification under proper use in the 90-day period after delivery Seller shall replace or repair the Software within a reasonable time of notification. No warranty is given that the Software is bug or error-free.
- Seller is not liable to Buyer for any such defect unless Buyer immediately gives Seller notice in writing of the alleged defect with full particulars of the operating conditions under which it became apparent and returns the Goods or relevant part carriage paid to Seller's works.
- Any items returned to Seller are at Buyer's risk. Repaired or replacement items will be despatched carriage paid by Seller to the address requested by Buyer.
- Seller is not liable for any defect and Conditions 10(a) and 10(c) cease to apply if after delivery the Goods or Software have been
 - used for any purpose other than that for which they were designed;
 - installed, used or stored otherwise than in strict accordance with Seller's instructions for use;
 - used with interfaces or control units not supplied or approved by Seller;
 - damaged, misused, neglected, not properly cleaned and stored after use or had any of their identification marks or numbers altered or removed;
 - modified and altered in any way without Seller's prior written authorisation; or
 - damaged as a result of use or operation after any defect in them has become apparent.
- The decision of Seller on all matters governed by this Condition 10 and in particular (but without limiting the foregoing) as to the nature and cause of any defect or malfunction, shall be conclusive, and binding on Buyer.
- Seller is not liable, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, for any damage to or reduced performance of any part of the Goods or any consequential loss arising from failure to follow any instructions as to the use of such part or otherwise brought to the attention of the user of such part or from other misuse.

11. Custom Built Equipment

- Where the Goods have been manufactured or constructed according to designs or configurations specified or supplied by Buyer, Buyer represents and warrants to Seller that:

12. Use and Disposal of Goods

- Buyer shall indemnify Seller against all liabilities, losses, interest, costs and expenses which Seller may suffer or incur in connection with any claim by any third party alleging facts which, if established, would indicate a breach of the Buyer's undertakings, representations and warranties contained in this Condition 12 or which if established would indicate a breach by any purchaser from Buyer of any undertaking which Buyer is obliged in this Condition 12 to require from such purchaser.
- If Buyer is not a private household user of the Goods, Buyer agrees to safely dispose of the Goods in compliance with relevant legislation at its own cost.

13. Drawings
